Description

Spear & Jackson Traditional Stainless Multi-Purpose Versatility Trowel

This new everyday 'Versatility' Trowel is a convenient, time-saving garden tool and the latest addition to the popular Traditional Stainless Range.

Well thought out features include a pointed blade for easier ground penetration of compacted and hard soil, engraved depth markers for accurate planting plus a serrated edge which will not only cut through roots and weeds but perfect for tearing open bags of compost.

Constructed with a mirror polished steel head to prevent rust resistance, minimal soil adhesion & easy cleaning.

The durable, hardwood handle is contoured providing user comfort and equipped with an etched steel cap for tamping down plant markers and lightweight hammering jobs.

Furnished with a handy leather strap for easy carrying and storage when not in use.

Overall length: 318mm.
