Description

Effortless urban gardening

The CityMower18 is a lightweight cordless lawnmower designed for easy urban lawn-care. It features a powerful 18 V battery with an advanced battery management system for longer runtimes, enabling cordless freedom without sacrificing power or efficiency.

The Ergoflex handles provide easy handling and support a healthy, comfortable posture while working. The product also features a lever control with a 3-step cutting height range of 30-60 mm for easy selection of the preferred lawn height. Grass combs ensure a clean trim along walls and edges for quick and easy results.

The tool belongs to the POWER FOR ALL ALLIANCE. One battery can operate a large variety of tools from different brands.

Power For All Cordless System from Bosch - Whether drilling, cleaning or gardening. Switch quickly and easily between different devices with the 18 V POWER FOR ALL battery from Bosch. For even more flexibility the battery fits also in tools of other POWER FOR ALL battery alliance partner.
