

Weibang Intrepid LV 800 Leaf & Litter Vacuum

AK-WBINTREPIDLV800

Our Price: £1799

The Intrepid LV800 is a high-quality, self-propelled wheeled leaf and litter vacuum powered by a Loncin G160f engine.

The Weibang leaf and litter vacuum delivers power, performance, and versatility in any situation. With a top-loading design for maximum collecting efficiency and an extra-large 240L easy-empty collector, the LV800 completes tasks quickly and efficiently, whether at home or work.

Its pressed steel body features a hard-wearing, powder-coated finish, ensuring durability and longevity.

Designed for homes and estates, the LV800's large 80cm working width and adjustable working height ensure that large areas are cleared quickly and efficiently. The high-traction rear tyres provide optimal grip in almost any condition.
