Joules Katherine Navy Waterproof Heritage Coat

Combining exceptional craftsmanship with timeless style, this coat is designed to withstand the British weather while keeping you effortlessly stylish.

The fully waterproof outer, complete with taped seams, offers ultimate rain protection, while the classic fit allows for easy layering.

The coat fastens with a zip and popper closure and features a unique-to-Joules checked lining, adding a signature touch.

Country-inspired details shine through, including a corduroy collar and cuff facing, a throat latch detail, and dual-entry bellow pockets.

Pop the collar to reveal checked undercollar detailing with Joules branded embroidery for added charm.

Additional hand-warmer pockets with concealed poppers ensure practicality and comfort.

Finished touches such as breathable underarm eyelets, a back pleat with a popper tab, and a metal chain hanging loop enhance its functionality.

A true investment piece, perfect for years of countryside adventures.
