Description

Doff Green Fingers Wild Flower Seed Mixture 1kg

This wildflower seed mix is designed to attract beneficial insects and wildlife, creating a thriving habitat for butterflies and pollinators.

It enhances biodiversity with a visually stunning mix of colours, bringing a natural balance to any landscape.

Ideal for borders, backdrops, landscapes, tubs, empty patches, and wasteland coverage, it can also be sown between shrubs and hedges for added growth.

Easy to sow directly from the box, it covers up to 100 sqm, with the best sowing periods from February to June and September to early November.

Please note the flower seeds are tiny, most of them will not be visible on the soil.
