Description

Wilkinson Sword Razorcut Pro Anvil Pruner

When it comes to all things wood whether it be tree care, pruning shrubs or hedges, Wilkinson Sword are in their element, with over 100 years of cutting excellence and these pruners are no exception to the rule. In our opinion, the perfect choice if you are searching for a durable, comfortable, high-quality Anvil Pruner able to cut sharply and cleanly.

Traditionally designed with two opening positions depending on the users hand size, the Razorcut Pro Anvil Pruner brings together power and precision into one cutting tool with an ultra sharp high quality Japanese SK3 steel blade and an Anvil cutting head to aid the cutting process through denser and dead wood.
