Description

Felco No16 Compact Left Handed Secateurs

The Felco Model 16 is designed for the left handed user with a small hand or the general left handed user looking for a small and light pruning tool

Crafted in forged aluminium for a lightweight but sturdy feel, the blade and screw-mounted anvil blade is made of high-quality hardened steel for a clean, precise cut and features an easy, durable cutting adjustment and wire cutting notch.

The ergonomic shape of the tool offers hand and wrist protection through a cushion-shock absorber & non-slip coating.

Replacement springs, blades and fastening screws are available. If you cannot find what you are looking for on our website, please contact customer services who will be happy to help.

Felco' handy 'Care Guide' attached.
