Description

Dubarry Sligo Ladies Country Boot Walnut

This Sligo, knee-high boot is packed with all the technical features you'd expect from Dubarry Country. DryFast-DrySoft™ leather, GORE-TEX lining plus a securely bonded sole to create a waterproof, shock-absorbing & comfortable boot.

Topping this with a full length zip for easy foot entry, a leather covered elasticated calf panel cleverly streamlines the design affording a more elegant and sophisticated silhouette.

Built to withstand the rough and tumble of country life, the Sligo styling lends itself beautifully to a mix of wardrobe pieces as it steps up to more urban settings too.

Finished with subtle signature & Gore-Tex branding for full assurance of quality and performance where ever your journey takes you.

For further assistance with sizing and precise boot measurements, please refer to attached specification sheet.
