Description

Spear & Jackson 8401 Razorsharp Telescopic Super Long Reach Cutter

Reaching new heights in gardening, this brand new model boasts a fully extended reach up to 3370mm (11ft) and operates via a durable steel cord providing extra strength and durability.

Designed to give that all important bit of extra reach without compromising safety, it features SK5 carbon steel blades for lasting sharpness and an adjustable head that can be angled in eight positions for precision, high level pruning.

Lightweight but strong, the telescopic aluminium handle has been equipped with a soft feel grip for comfortable handling in use and locks away for safe storage.

As an optional extra, why not attach the new 'S&J Genuine Saw Blade' for pruning tougher, high-level branches and increase your versatility when pruning.
