Description

Hoggs Glencoe Waterproof Hiker Boots

Sturdy enough to withstand the rigours of a long day in the Highlands, this Fife Country boot is waterproof, breathable and packed full with technical features.

Selecting the finest nubuck leather, it is unbelievably light (only 1.3kg a pair), so your feet will be comfortable from the first to the last step whether at work or play.

The superior comfort factor is further enhanced by with a cushioned insole, proper arch supports and extra padding in the collar, to prevent tired feet.

With a grippy sole which also resists abrasion on hard surfaces, they take tough terrain and bad weather in their stride and perfect for any seasoned traveller.

Not just for Highlands but the Lowlands too and everyday adventures, hobbies & rambles.

Available Sizes: 42 - 47.
