Description

Harkila Orton Ladies Packable Jacket Willow Green

The Orton Packable Lady Jacket, like the other products in the Orton Packable range, is made from a very lightweight, soft, stretch fabric.

One of the most versatile shell jackets on the market today, it has been designed in a tailored fit and features the Harkila HWS windproof and waterproof membrane.

Ideal for hunting or shooting later on in the year, it's armed with plenty of utility elements such as stow-away hood, QuickLoad function pockets with drain holes and adjustable waist, cuffs & hem.

Extremely practical, the beauty of this jacket is that as it packs down into its own pocket, it won't weight you down whatever the weather making it perfect too for high energy activities such as hiking & gun dog training.
