Description

WD-40 Multi-Purpose Lubricant 5L

The original multi-use product that protects metal from rust and corrosion, penetrates stuck parts, displaces moisture and lubricates almost anything.

Supplied in an economy 5 litre container which is a suitable format to use the product quickly and in large quantities!

It is particularly suitable for soaking large parts and thus ideal for degreasing parts, loosening highly corroded parts and protecting surfaces from corrosion and rust.

A proven maintenance product with a history of more than 65 years in the DIY, trade and industry sectors.

Ideal for use on tools, equipment and parts around the garden, garage, workshop and home.
