Description

Bosch Universal Hedgecut 60

The corded Universal Hedgecut 50 is perfect for trimming medium-sized hedges with quiet ease. Encased in the ProSilence 91 dB sound-dampening shell is an energy-efficient 480 W motor, delivering the optimal power and performance with a reduced energy demand and 80% quieter than our leading hedgecutters.

Its 60-cm long, laser-cut, diamond-ground blades with a 26-mm tooth opening cut effortlessly through branches up to 26 mm wide for fast and impressive results. This hedgecutter is perfect for trimming conifer, privet/box, hawthorn, and viburnum hedges.

- ProSilence enables powerful performance with 80% noise reduction to 91 dB(A)
- 60-cm blade length and 30-mm tooth spacing design for heavy trimming work
- High-torque slipping clutch enables easy cutting through thick branches
- Efficient 480 W motor and cutting power for impressive performances
- Perfect for trimming medium-sized hedges
